Take the Kennedy bridge across to Jeffersonville. Take exit 0 and turn right at the end of the ramp.

This is Court Avenue. Go to Pearl Street, about 2-3 blocks down ... turn right.

At the next street, Maple, turn left.
Look for a place to park along this street, but as close to the next intersection with Spring Street.

The building to your right is Perkfection. Come on in.

This sign in this picture isn't actually very big.

Once inside, look for a staircase up.

Come on up. I'm in one of the office suites up there.

At the top of the stairs, you need to knock on the RIGHT door. I'll come and let you in. If I don't hear you, pull the door open with the hydraulic door closing mechanism. The doorknobs were removed by the restaurant downstairs to be in compliance with local liquor board laws. (Don't ask.)
